

Contents

1. Introduction	7
Pero Maldini
2. A European Democracy: Why and How?	17
Philippe C. Schmitter
3. Transition and Consolidation of Democracy	37
Andelko Milardović
4. Socio-Cultural Aspects Of Transition	63
Pero Maldini
5. Transition from Post-Communism: South-East Europe between Nationalism, Multiculturalism and Globalization	77
Mislav Kukoč
6. Some Lessons of Collective Protests in Central European Post-Communist Countries: Poland, Hungary, Slovakia and East Germany between the 1989-1993	93
Máté Szabó
7. Welfare State in Post-Socialist Countries: Social Costs of Transformation	117
Davorka Vidović

8. The Burden of the Past. Lustration as the Instrument of the Political Competition in the Czech Republic	141
Vladimíra Dvořáková
9. Inclusiveness of Suffrage in Post-Yugoslav Region	157
Tomaz Deželan and Damjan Lajh
10. New Ideologies and Transition Opening in Croatia and Serbia	189
Davor Pauković
11. Transformation of the Health Care System in Poland: Achievements and Challenges	219
Jacek Klich	